

LOUISIANA LAW REVIEW COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

The following is an agreement between AUTHOR, hereinafter referred to as the Author, and the Louisiana Law Review, and governs the article entitled "TITLE," hereinafter referred to as the Work.

1. Author's Grant of Rights

- a. For the term specified in 1(b), and except as provided in 2(b), the author grants to the Louisiana Law Review the rights to reproduce and distribute the Work in the Louisiana Law Review, in facsimile reprints or microforms, as a contribution to a collection published by the Louisiana Law Review, and by means of an Internet or Intranet site over which the Louisiana Law Review exercises effective control, and also by means of a third-party online legal information provider, such as, but not limited to LEXIS-NEXIS and Westlaw.
- b. The Louisiana Law Review's rights provided in Paragraph 1(a) shall survive for the entire copyright term. The rights shall be exclusive for a period beginning when this Agreement is executed and ending one (1) year after publication of the Work in the Louisiana Law Review or two (2) years after execution of this Agreement, whichever is shorter, and shall be nonexclusive thereafter.
- c. The Louisiana Law Review's right to reproduce the Work includes the rights to prepare a translation in any language or to authorize the preparation of such a translation, but such right is subject to the Author's approval of the translator, which is not to be unreasonably withheld.
- d. After the Work has been published in the Louisiana Law Review, the Louisiana Law Review shall have the right, after notifying the Author, to authorize another party to reproduce and distribute the Work in the forms specified in Paragraph 1(a) as well as in textbooks.
- e. The Author grants the above rights without claim of royalties or other compensation.

2. Author's Ownership of Copyright and Reservation of Rights

- a. The copyright in the Work shall remain with the Author.
- b. The Author retains the rights:
 - (i) To reproduce and distribute the Work, and to authorize others to reproduce and distribute the Work, in any format, to students for classroom use, at or below cost;

- (ii) To include the Work, in whole or part, in another work of which the Author is the sole or joint author or editor, provided that in either circumstance the Author may not submit a work for publication that is substantially the same as the Work to another periodical without the permission of the Louisiana Law Review sooner than one (1) year after publication of the Work or two (2) years after execution of this Agreement, whichever is sooner, and provided further that such Work identifies the Author, the Louisiana Law Review, the volume, the number of the first page, and the year of the Works' publication in the Louisiana Law Review;
- (iii) To post the Work, in whole or part, on an Internet or Intranet site over which the Author has effective control provided that such Work identifies the Author, the Louisiana Law Review, the volume, the number of the first page, and the year of the Work's publication in the Louisiana Law Review.

3. Publication by Others

- a. Unless the Author notifies the Louisiana Law Review in writing otherwise, the issue of the Louisiana Law Review in which the Work appears shall include a notice stating that the Work may be reproduced and distributed, in whole or in part, by nonprofit institutions for educational purposes including distribution to students, provided that the copies are distributed at or below cost and identify the Author, the Louisiana Law Review, the volume, the number of the first page, and the year of the Work's publication.
- b. The Louisiana Law Review shall have the right to authorize another party to reproduce and distribute the Work in a form other than those specified in Paragraph 1(a), provided that such reproduction identifies the Author, the Louisiana Law Review, the volume, the number of the first page, and the year of the Work's publication in the Louisiana Law Review, and provided further that the Author has been notified by the Louisiana Law Review of its intent to authorize such reproduction and distribution not less than thirty (30) days prior to the grant of such authorization and the Author has not within thirty (30) days after being notified given the Louisiana Law Review written notice of the Author's objection to such reproduction and distribution.

4. Author's Warranties and Undertakings

- a. The Author warrants that to the best of the Author's knowledge:
 - (i) The Author is the sole author of the Work and has the power to convey the rights granted in this Agreement;
 - (ii) The Work has not previously been published, in whole or in part, except as follows:

- (iii) The Work does not infringe the copyright or property right of another; and
 - (iv) The Work does not contain matter that is defamatory, violates another's civil right, right of privacy, right of publicity, or other legal right, or is otherwise unlawful.
- b. If the Work reproduces any textual or graphic material that is the property of another for which permission is required, the Author shall, obtain written consent to such reproduction.

5. Litigation

- a. If a claim is asserted against the Louisiana Law Review as a result of the Author's alleged breach of this Agreement or the warranties herein, the Author shall be promptly notified. The Author shall have the right to participate in the Louisiana Law Review's response to and defenses against such claim, and the Louisiana Law Review shall not settle such claim without the Author's approval which will not be unreasonably withheld. If a settlement requires the Louisiana Law Review to make a money payment, or a money judgment is rendered against the Louisiana Law Review, the Author shall reimburse the Louisiana Law Review for the amount of such payment or judgment, and shall pay the cost and expenses reasonably incurred by the Louisiana Law Review in defending against the claim. If no money judgment is rendered against the Louisiana Law Review, but the Author is still found to be at fault, the Author shall pay the cost and expenses reasonably incurred by the Louisiana Law Review in defending against the claim.
- b. The Louisiana Law Review shall have the power, after giving notice to the Author, to initiate legal proceedings against persons or entities believed to be infringing the rights granted by the Author to the Louisiana Law Review. The Author agrees to cooperate reasonably in the institution and maintenance of such proceedings, including by joining the action as a party. Damages recovered in such proceedings shall be applied first toward the Louisiana Law Review's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in the proceedings, and the balance shall be divided equally between the Author and the Louisiana Law Review.

6. Final Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the sole agreement between the Author and the Louisiana Law Review with respect to the publication and copyright of this Work. Any modification of or additions to the terms of this Agreement shall be in writing.
